Allowable Subject Matter

1. Applicant's amendments to the claims and the rejection are deemed to overcome the outstanding office action.
2. Claims 1-20 are allowable.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not teach or suggest the switch device comprising:

- Claim 1: the switch portion including a first contact and a second contact displaceable into or out of contact with each other, wherein a removing force externally applied for dismounting the operation portion and the switch portion from each other acts is transmitted to at least one of the first contact and the second contact to separate the first contact and the second contact off from each other.

- Claim 10: the operation device including a displaceable portion displaceable by a switching operation of a user and disposed in connection to at least the first contact to effect displacement of the first and second contact to the first and second positions in response to the switching operation and the switch assembly including a force transmitting structure engaging the operation device and configured to apply the user applied removal force to at least the first contact to displace the first contact from the first position to a position whereat the first and second contacts are not in contact with each other.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
